Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

EDWARD L. WHITE, P.C.,

Plaintiff,

- against -

WEST PUBLISHING CORPORATION d/b/a "West";
and REED ELSEVIER INC.,
d/b/a LexisNexis,

Defendants.

12-CV-1340 (JSR)
ECF CASE

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

EDWARD L. WHITE, P.C. ("White" or "Plaintiff"), by its undersigned attorneys, as and for its Amended Complaint against WEST PUBLISHING COORPORATION d/b/a/ "West" ("West"); and REED ELSEVIER INC., d/b/a/ LexisNexis ("Lexis" or "LexisNexis"), (collectively, "Defendants"), respectfully alleges as follows:

Nature of the Case

1. This is a copyright infringement action against West and LexisNexis based upon their copying copyright-protected works created by, and owned by, the Plaintiff.

2. The Defendants are the largest electronic legal research providers in the United States. West and LexisNexis have engaged in wholesale unlawful copying of attorneys' copyrighted work, bundled those works into searchable databases, and sold access to those works in the form of digitized text and images for huge profits. In doing so, West and LexisNexis are infringing the rights of the very clients they purport to serve. West and LexisNexis well know that the copyright laws of the United States require them to obtain authorization from the attorneys who created the works they infringe. Despite this knowledge, West and LexisNexis have for years and continue to systematically sell the attorneys' work.

3. Plaintiff is entitled to damages, disgorgement of profits, a declaratory judgment, and an injunction to prevent further infringement.

Parties

4. Edward L. White, P.C., is an Oklahoma professional corporation, with an office located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. White's sole legal employee is Edward L. White, an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Oklahoma, and is admitted to practice before the United States Patent & Trademark Office. White has authored, and has obtained copyright registration for, each of the works identified in Exhibit A hereto. At least these following works (the "Works") also appears in one or more of the Defendants' electronic databases:

5. Upon information and belief, Reed Elsevier has a principal executive office in the United States located in Newton, Massachusetts. Reed Elsevier is authorized to do business in the State of New York, and has an authorized agent for service of process within the state c/o CT Corporation System 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, 10011.

6. Upon information and belief, West is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Thompson Reuters Corporation, and is a Minnesota corporation with a principal place of business located at 610 Opperman Drive, Eagan, Minnesota.

Jurisdiction

7. This copyright infringement action arises under 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), and 28 U.S.C. § 1338 (acts of Congress related to copyright).

9. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(3) because the defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district and 1400(a) because the Defendants conduct business in this district.

General Allegations

10. The Defendants provide online digital databases of legal-related content to attorneys, law firms, and other professionals. The databases include, among other things, case law, statutes, treatises, news articles, and public records.

11. In addition, the Defendants each include, as stand-alone databases or as part of other databases, legal memoranda, briefs, motions, and other materials authored by attorneys and law firms and which have been filed with courts of record.

12. In order to include the Works (as defined above) in their databases, the Defendants copy such works and digitize them in order to make them text searchable. In at least some instances, the Defendants also include images of the Works available for viewing and/or download.

13. The Defendants make the content of the Works available to their subscribers for a fee. Depending upon the nature of the Defendants' contracts with individual subscribers or users, the Defendants may include access to the Works either as part of package subscription, or at an additional per-document charge.

14. For example, the LexisNexis website has stated that the “All Federal and State Briefs and Motions, Combined [database] has selected briefs and motions from 2000 to the present.”¹

15. Westlaw’s databases have “selected briefs from the U.S. Supreme Court, Courts of Appeals, Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, U.S. Tax Court, 51 state courts and the District of Columbia. Selected Petitions for Writ of Certiorari are also included.” Westlaw’s website makes clear that these are not summaries or transformative uses. Instead, “The Pleadings, Motions and Memoranda collection includes actual filings from state trial courts, U.S. district courts, and federal bankruptcy courts from across the United States.”²

16. The Defendants charge substantial fees for access to these databases. For example, access to West’s “All State Briefs” database has been priced at $389.00 per month for a solo attorney, as is its “All Federal Briefs” database. Access to the All State and Federal Briefs product has been priced for solo practitioners at $622.00 per month. Lexis’s Briefs, Pleadings, and Motions product costs a single attorney $960.00 for a twelve month subscription.

17. The Defendants have neither sought, nor obtained, ownership of the copyright to the Works, or a license to copy, sell, or otherwise profit from the Works.

18. The Defendants continue to sell the Works without authorization.

² <http://store.westlaw.com/westlaw/litigator/pleadings-motions-mem/default.aspx> (accessed on December 16, 2011).

19. The Defendants' infringement of the Works have caused, and will continue to cause, damages and irreparable injury to Plaintiff.

20. The Defendants, as the publishers and authors of numerous and substantial original works of legal analysis – in which they claim and vigorously defend their own copyright interests – knew or should have known that their actions constitute copyright infringement.

21. Plaintiff has suffered damages, and will continue to suffer damages, as well as irreparable harm, from the Defendants' copying and sale of its Works.

Count One:
Copyright Infringement

22. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each of the allegations in the foregoing paragraphs as if set forth in full herein.

23. Plaintiff is the owner of the Works, which the Defendants have copied, digitized, transformed, and packaged into databases that are sold for profit.

24. Plaintiff has the exclusive right to reproduce, prepare derivative works, and distribute copies of the Works.

25. In derogation of the Plaintiff's rights in the Works, the Defendants have made copies of the Works, prepared derivative works, and distributed copies of the Works.

26. The Defendants' conduct is in violation of the copyrights held by the Plaintiff.

27. The Defendants' infringements of the copyrights was willful.

28. As a result of the Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff has suffered damages, and will be irreparably harmed in the absence of an injunction.

Count Two:
Request for Injunctive Relief

29. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each of the allegations in the foregoing paragraphs as if set forth in full herein.

30. Upon information and belief, the Defendants are adding Works to their databases on an ongoing basis, and intend to do so for the indefinite future.

31. Each addition of Works to the Defendants' databases constitutes additional infringement.

32. Unless enjoined from doing so, the Defendants' continued commercial use of the Works will cause Plaintiff irreparable harm by depriving it of both the right to control the reproduction and distribution of copyrighted Works and to receive revenue from those Works.

33. The Defendants' copying and resale of the Works do not fall within any of the statutory exceptions to copyright infringement and are in violation of the Plaintiff's rights.

34. The balance of hardships tips in favor of the Plaintiff because the Defendants have substantial earnings from their non-infringing products and, upon information and belief, the Works constitute a relatively small portion of the Defendants' total electronic offerings. The Defendants' earnings and ability to continue in business will not be severely damaged by an injunction prohibiting them from continuing to unlawfully copy, distribute, and resell the Works.

35. Plaintiff therefore is entitled to an injunction barring the Defendants from continued infringement of the copyrights of, including an injunction against future infringement of Plaintiff's now existing and future works, whether registered or unregistered, and other equitable relief as more fully set forth in the Prayer for Relief.

Count Three:
Request for Declaratory Relief

36. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each of the allegations in the foregoing paragraphs as if set forth in full herein.

37. By reason of the facts set forth above, an actual controversy exists between the Plaintiff and the Defendants.

38. Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment declaring that the Defendants' actions are unlawful and, specifically, that the Defendants infringed and continue to infringe the Plaintiff's copyrights in violation of the Copyright Act.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- (i) enter judgment against the Defendants:
 - a. awarding actual damages, statutory damages, and disgorgement of the Defendants' profits;
 - b. permanently enjoining the Defendants from infringement of the copyrights of Plaintiff and/or grant other equitable relief to redress any continuing violations of the Act;
 - c. declaring that the Defendants' copying and distribution of the Works violates the Copyright Act;
 - d. awarding costs and attorneys' fees; and
- (ii) grant such other and further relief as the Court finds just and proper.

Jury Demand

Plaintiff demands a jury trial on all issues.
